Iris Lovers will welcome the opportunity offered during this Surplus Iris Sale to purchase many choice varieties of high standard grade rhizomes at the remarkably low prices quoted, many novelties and originations being included for the first time at these prices.

Considering the many wanted varieties offered in each price group and the attractive prices quoted, we naturally expect a wide response to this Sales Circular, so we suggest that you make your choice of wanted varieties and send in your order as promptly as possible, for the earlier the orders are received, the more nearly will we be able to complete your first choice list—Note directions for giving second choice.

Only representative high standard rhizomes are offered in this sale—We guarantee the quality of every root sold.

* * * *

For a number of years there has been a great and constantly growing interest in Iris with yearly introductions running into the hundreds. Very few, if any, commercial growers attempt to keep up or present a complete assortment of varieties, confining themselves usually to the selection of those varieties which according to personal judgment, rumor or report are best known or most likely to sell—leaving a vast array of really worthy Iris unknown and unsung. Many of these comparatively unknown varieties of Iris compare most favorably with the more widely known, give a wealth of pleasure to Iris Lovers, and may be bought at very reasonable prices.

As Iris enthusiasts and growers we are interested in every new introduction announced and we buy and grow all new offerings giving due credit for the honest intentions and competence of judgment of all introducers until found contrary to their claims. We believe we have the most comprehensive assortment of varieties available and can supply almost any want. Refer to the 1931 issue of "An Iris Lovers Catalog" for complete listing and description of varieties.

Terms—Cash With Order

Each group must be taken as listed. No half groups or split orders between groups. Only one root of any variety may be selected in one group.

How To Make Selection

All varieties listed are keyed as to the predominating color effect by the number and letter appearing with each name as follows:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1A Light Blue Tones | 3A Yellow Self Tones |
| 1B Medium Blue Tones | 3B Yellowish Blended Tones |
| 1C Deep Blue and Violet Tones | 3C Yellow and Bronzed Bicolor |
| 2A Light Pink Tones | 4A Self Whites |
| 2B Medium Red Tones | 4B Plicata, Frilled and Dotted |
| 2C Deep Bronzed Red Purples | 4C White Stands, Colored Falls |

This furnishes a general color identification. You are referred to AN IRIS LOVERS CATALOG for more detailed descriptions.

An Appreciation . . .

We wish to take this means of thanking our many friends and customers for their expressions of satisfaction and pleasure at receiving the latest 1931 issue of An Iris Lovers Catalog, the most complete and comprehensive we have ever published, and to express our appreciation for the many orders sent us this and past seasons.

Every effort has been made to serve and satisfy every customer—to initiate more flower lovers into the mysteries of Iris love and culture.

If we have given but one-half the pleasure to others that we have enjoyed in the doing, we shall feel well repaid for the effort.

We welcome inquiries and shall be glad to hear from Iris growers on any Iris topic.
